

Write a Story About Friendship

Having friends it's great, and it's even more important to be a good friend. What do you think is the best thing about friendship? What do you think is the most important thing about friendship? What's the hardest thing about friendship? Consider any of these questions (or others) and craft a short story about this topic.

Think of the four stories we read in class, and the different ways they approached the topic:

- A children's story about the virtues of being a good friend.
- A memoir meant to inspire others.
- A short story that creates a "vacuum" in which friendship is missing.
- An anecdote containing some poignant wisdom about friendship.

Length: One page

Due: _____

Write a Story About Friendship

Having friends it's great, and it's even more important to be a good friend. What do you think is the best thing about friendship? What do you think is the most important thing about friendship? What's the hardest thing about friendship? Consider any of these questions (or others) and craft a short story about this topic.

Think of the four stories we read in class, and the different ways they approached the topic:

- A children's story about the virtues of being a good friend.
- A memoir meant to inspire others.
- A short story that creates a "vacuum" in which friendship is missing.
- An anecdote containing some poignant wisdom about friendship.

Length: One page

Due: _____

