

Point of View Exercises

Choose three pairs of characters and write one paragraph (at least 5 sentences) for each character on a separate piece of paper. There will be six paragraphs total.

1. A seventh-grader walking into Timberline for the first time.
2. An English teacher getting ready for the first day of school.
3. A boy/girl (choose your gender) admiring a secret crush.
4. A (choose the gender opposite yours) admiring a secret crush.
5. A hunter in pursuit of a savage beast.
6. A savage beast running from a hunter (any beast—pretend it can talk).
7. A child being scolded by his/her mother for a messy room.
8. A mother scolding her child for his/her messy room.
9. Cops chasing bank robbers.
10. Bank robbers running from the cops.
11. An older brother/sister whose valuable item is broken or lost by a younger sibling.
12. A younger brother/sister who broke/lost an older sibling's valuable item.
13. A rich kid at a fancy restaurant
14. A poor kid at a fancy restaurant.
15. An American lying wounded on Normandy Beach (D-Day, WWII).
16. A German lying wounded on Normandy Beach (D-Day, WWII).
17. A hawk hunting a mouse.
18. A mouse running from a hawk.
19. A store worker catching a shoplifting boy.
20. A shoplifting boy getting caught before leaving the store.